HELENA HIGH SCHOOL

Timberlake, North Carolina

FOREWORD

Many happy moments have been ours at Helena High School. Here we have laughed and cried and taken the first hesitant steps toward adulthood.

In these classrooms we have been taught responsibility, and here our hearts and loyalty remain. As we close the doors on our high school days and make our final walk down the halls of Helena, we leave our cherished memories to our Alma Mater.

We offer this yearbook as a symbol of those happy moments spent at Helena.

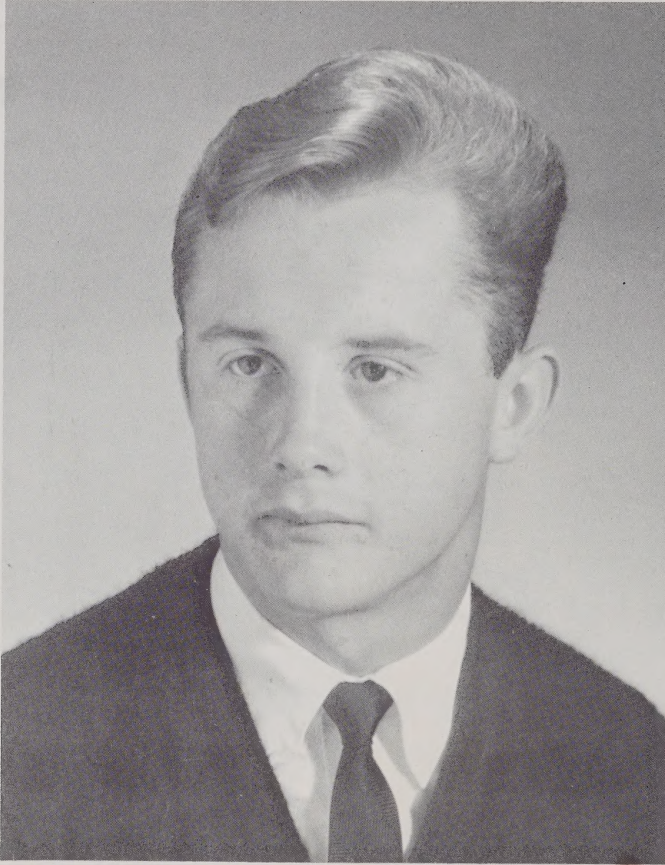

ALMA

Blue and Gold, we are behind you,
 And to you we're true.
 Keep our colors ever waving,
 Dear old Gold and Blue.
 Hail to truest Blue and Gold,
 School, for you we stand.
 Onward ever, backward never,
 Hail To H. H. S.

MATER

I'm a Tarheel born, /
 I'm a Tarheel bred,
 And when I die,
 I'll be a Tarheel dead.
 So, it's Rah! Rah! Helena, Helena,
 Rah! Rah! Helena, Helena,
 Rah! Rah! Helena,
 Rah! Rah! Rah!

IN MEMORIAM

HAROLD BRADLEY McBROOM
June 27, 1951 — November 6, 1967

A rising junior at Helena, in popularity and intelligence, Bradley had attended school for eleven years. Bestowed upon him was no act of unkindness, only of unselfishness and devotion to others. He showed no hostility toward anyone, only deep respect and admiration for his fellow man. Bradley was truly an unexpected and severe loss to the Junior Class and Helena High School.

DEDICATION

We, the Senior Class of 1968, dedicate this volume of the Hornet to

MRS. EDNA OAKLEY

We salute Mrs. Oakley as an exceptional teacher and a wonderful friend. While teaching us typing and bookkeeping she has been ready to help us with our problems.

May her unselfishness and personal understanding be an inspiration to us.

ADMINISTRATION SCHOOL BOARD

Mr. Alva H. Clayton, Mr. Jack Rogers, Mr. Coy Horton, Mr. Harold Clayton, not pictured: Mr. Marcus Jordan.

PRINCIPAL

Seniors: For the past twelve years you have had the opportunity to develop tools and concepts of values which should be a foundation upon which you build your future. Our highly complex and rapidly changing society demands that each of us keep abreast of these developments and changes by continuously adding to this foundation we have prepared.

It seems that one of the challenges presenting itself to our society today is one of maintaining and living by our highest concepts and ideals in a society in which these are in danger of being superseded by some of questionable merit and value.

Have courage to meet the challenges of your future with honesty and determination, and success will be yours.

Sincerely,

G. N. Titus

CLASS HISTORY

On a sunny day in 1956, a group of funny, bright-eyed kids entered the first grade. Our teachers were Miss Nannie Monk, Mrs. Whitfield, and Mrs. Norma Whitfield. It took a few pencil beatings and strict teachers like them to calm us down.

Our second grade teachers were Mrs. John O'Briant, Mrs. Bumpass, and Miss Pearce. The big event at Hurdle Mills was the spelling bees, and at Helena and Mt. Tirzah adding and subtracting was emphasized.

At Helena in the third grade, Mrs. Satterfield taught the Helena geniuses multiplication. At Mt. Tirzah and Hurdle Mills the students were enjoying presenting plays and going to the movies.

During our fourth and fifth grades of school we all learned some of the books of the Bible and other religious concepts.

The baseball team emerged from Hurdle Mills in the sixth grade. Mt. Tirzah bought an autoharp and Helena went to the Ice Capades in Raleigh.

Mt. Tirzah and Helena went to the Ice Capades in the seventh grade, while Hurdle Mills enjoyed a picnic supper and rollerskating in Mebane.

The class at Mt. Tirzah went to Morehead Planetarium in Chapel Hill. The Hurdle Mills students joined the Helena students in the eighth grade. The most exciting event was our Eighth Grade Banquet.

In the ninth grade Helena, Mt. Tirzah, and Hurdle Mills students met face to face. Mr. Wachs, Mrs. Welch, and Mrs. Titus helped us to get accustomed to high school and to meeting so many new people.

By the tenth and eleventh grade many of us were participating in athletic events. Mr. Hodge and Mr. Gentry had a time controlling all the energy we had. Our most exciting adventures were receiving our long-awaited class rings and our Junior-Senior Banquet.

We have reached our Senior year with mixed emotions. Everyone is deciding what they will do with their life. We are looking forward to one of the most important events of our lives — our Graduation.
